

ESL Classes Volunteer

Primary Responsibility: The main duty of this position is to help workers learn practical English skills in a supportive environment. It would be helpful (but not necessary) for a volunteer in this role to speak conversational Spanish.

Time: Classes take place from 8am-9am, Monday-Saturday. Because building relationships between volunteers and the Voz community is very important to us, we ask for a minimum of a 20-visit commitment.

Location: Worker Center at 240 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

Requires: Interpersonal skills, general friendliness, emailing, texting, reporting, consistency (no prior experience necessary).

Workflow: Help workers practice their English skills in a casual environment. Hold conversations about various topics and encourage workers to speak English for all or most of the conversation.

Works With: Work Force Development, Worker Center staff.
